

Economic Damage Advisory Services, LLC

Douglas H. Sell, Jr., CFE

Managing Director

E-mail: doug@edas-experts.com

Education & Employment Experience

Mr. Sell has over a decade of forensic accounting and economic damage experience. Prior to founding Economic Damage Advisory Services, LLC (“EDAS”), Mr. Sell worked as a senior consultant for over nine years at a Philadelphia-based consulting firm that specialized in forensic and investigative accounting. Prior to his former position, Mr. Sell worked as a consultant for a large regionally-based accounting firm in their Forensic Accounting and Litigation Support Department for approximately two years. At EDAS Mr. Sell’s practice focuses on quantifiable economic damage(s) arising from a catastrophic event (i.e. – medical malpractice, slip-and-fall, motor vehicle accidents, workplace accidents, defamation, wrongful death, etc.). Additionally, Mr. Sell has experience with projects such as shareholder disputes, accounting (fraud) investigations, commercial damages, lost profits/increased expenses, subrogation damages, and business interruption claims, among others.

Mr. Sell received a Bachelor’s of Science Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Drexel University. Additionally, Mr. Sell is a Certified Fraud Examiner (“CFE”), which is a designation bestowed on member-practitioners from the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. Members qualify for the CFE based on recommendations from their colleagues, work experience in the field of fraud examination, and passing a comprehensive, four-part exam.

Publications and Case Studies

“Flushing Out Financial Information to Assist Your Expert”, The Legal Intelligencer, August 31, 2012.

“Following the Logic Through the Calculation of Damages”, www.forensicdjs.com/case-studies, January 2013

“Sufficient Relevant Data and the Collapse of an Expert’s Opinion”, www.forensicdjs.com/case-studies, July 2013

Presentations

“Inquiring About Insurance”, Panel Discussion hosted by the Partnership for Haddonfield’s Professional Services Committee, Haddonfield, NJ, February 2011

“Evaluating Economic Loss Claims: Business and Personal”, PAMIC Claims Summit, Gettysburg, PA, March 2012

“Evaluating Economic Loss Claims – Don’t Let Economic Damages Take You Over the Fiscal Cliff”, Insurance Society of Philadelphia, CLE Seminar, Cherry Hill, NJ, April 2013

“Evaluating Economic Loss Claims – Don’t Let Economic Damages Take You Over the Fiscal Cliff”, Weber Gallagher Simpson Stapleton Fires & Newby LLP, CLE Seminar, Mount Laurel, NJ, May 2013

“Evaluating Economic Loss Claims – Don’t Let Economic Damages Take You Over the Fiscal Cliff”, Liberty Mutual, CLE Seminar, Philadelphia, PA, February 2014

Professional, Volunteer & Civic Affiliations

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners: Current Member

Philadelphia Area Chapter of Certified Fraud Examiners: Current Member

New Jersey Waterfowlers Association: Member and Trustee

Partnership for Haddonfield – Professional Committee: Former Board Member

Rotary Club of Haddonfield: Former Member, Former Director of Club Service, Former Director of Community Service

United Methodist Men, First United Methodist Church of Moorestown: Current Member and President

Designations

Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE)